Margaret River's Climate

The climate is mild Mediterranean with four distinct seasons offering a year round choice for your function or event. Summers are dry with an average maximum temperature of just under 30 degrees Celsius. Cooled by lovely afternoon sea breezes evenings are balmy to mild with temperatures around 15.5 degrees Celsius. Most rainfall occurs in the winter months but glorious sunny days still abound and we're graced with a passing parade of whales. Temperatures are milder with an average 16 to 18 degrees Celsius with some days in the early 20's. Winter evenings are mild and average out above the 8 degree mark, perfect for an evening indoors with a glass of wine or by the fire.

Spring and autumn are lovely and warm with plenty of sunny days. We see a flurry of arts and wine-inspired events and in springtime the wildflowers put on their own dazzling show.
